Great News . . . Our DYC Learn to Sail Program is a GO!

We have secured our Head Instructor, a former DYC student with experience teaching levels 1 to 4. Most recently he has taught at the Ottawa Sailing Club. Stay tuned for proper introductions next month.

We will be running our Summer LTS in a similar format as last year with June weekends and July and August weekdays. One and two week camps will be made available. Registration will be open in the next few weeks. Please check the DYC website for further information at that time.

Commodore's Report . . .

by Leigh Brown

commodore@dalhousieyachtclub.com

Although it may look quiet from the outside, and many of our members have traveled south for the winter, inside the clubhouse things are rocking and rolling.

Dock assignments are nearly complete. If you'd like to request a change, let it be known so that when spots open up, the committee can make informed decisions on whom they should offer the opening to. Although Sean's beard could help pass him off as a wizard, he can't read minds . . . I don't think.

We have a new catering agreement with Ed and Emily Fox of Fox Foods. Much work has gone into this updated agreement, solidifying some of the trial items from the last agreement and describing some additional requirements, strengthening our partnership and commitment for another term. Docks of the future: the committee has met with industry-leading design and development groups and is expected to put out a formal request for bids later this month. The city of St. Catharines is working through the finer details of our land lease, and I'm hopeful that we will have it signed before launch.

A hiring panel was formed and had screened over 30 resumes for our Harbour Office and Yard Supervisor job posting. Interviews were held with five promising candidates. The panel then reviewed their notes, checked references and have made an offer, for an April start. We have a couple of returning yard staff and some new faces that I'm very excited to introduce to you next month along with the Supervisor. Learn to Sail has found our new head instructor, and I am confident that we will find lead instructors in time to open registration for the summer. Our adult keelboat sailing program is in good shape with our two member instructors, Chris Hunter and Chris Treschak, returning this spring.

Speaking of keelboats, our Kirby fleet is getting some special attention from members of the racing community, and they are preparing for another great season of racing. We are hoping more of our members will join a crew. Wednesday Night Racing is more than just rounding the barrels, hoisting the spinnaker, and really honing your sailing skills; it's a whole lot of fun with a great bunch of friends. If you want to learn more about "Kirby World," come ask about it Wednesday nights over a game of cards or some darts.

Our social calendar is filling up with some great entertainment, cruises are scheduled, the website is getting a facelift, our DYC App is constantly getting upgraded, and repairs are being made. There is just so much going on right now. I know I'm missing something, so be sure to read through the rest of this month's newsletter and reach out if you see something that interests you.

I'm exhausted just summarizing the great work being done to plan out our 2024 season, thank you all for your contributions. I look forward to sharing sun-downers on the patio with you all in the very near future.

Leigh, Leah and of course, Leo

Vice-Commodore's Report . . .

By Patti-jo Chambers

vice.comm@dalhousieyachtclub.com

Oh, it's so close now . . . only weeks away! The weather is breaking and members are beginning to appear in the yard, in preparation for launch the end of April. Watch for updates for our Member's Spring Information Night. All members are welcome to join us in the Sunset, it's a great time to meet new members and find out about the opening up of our 2024 season.

Mark Your Calendars

- Celebrate St. Paddy's Day with Barley Brae Band - Saturday, March 16
- Easter Dinner at the Sunset - Sunday, March 31 (Eat in or Take Out)
- DYC Spring Member Information Night - Wednesday, April 17 ~ 7 p.m.
- Time to Roll Up Your Sleeves. We need your help, watch for further details to come
- Docks In is set for Saturday, April 20
- Our first Launch Weekend - Saturday, April 27 and Sunday, April 28th.
- Then the next Saturday, May 4th - we will hopefully wrap it up.
- Race Marks Out on Brutus

Looking forward to seeing you out there!

The first mention of DYC in the Standard.

Dalhousie Yacht Club Activities in Full Swing on Lake Ontario

Development of the standard sail of Paul Falkenberg, the Dalhousie Yacht Club has continued during the last few months of operation. In a recent issue of the Standard, the Standard's circulation was reported as 10,000.

DALHOUSIE YACHT CLUB
Attracts Much Attention During First Full Session
The club has been in full swing since the first meeting on the 1st of August. The club has a membership of 100 and is growing rapidly. The club has a fleet of 100 sailboats and is open to all who are interested in the sport of sailing.

The Stars Say—
An excellent report on the Dalhousie Yacht Club was given by the Stars in their recent issue. The Stars say that the club is doing very well and is a credit to the city of Toronto.

Established on the Michigan side at Port Dalhousie, the Dalhousie Yacht Club has attracted much attention during its first full season of operation. In a recent visit to the squadron, the Standard photographer snapped some interesting scenes, as in the

Attracts Much Attention During First Full Season

By Jimmy Whyte

The red and white burgee whips from the masthead as the breeze freshens, and a slim boat heels over and gathers way with the grace of a bird, its big sail taking full advantage of the change in the air. A bigger craft, sails bellying out, sweeps out of the harbour mouth into the lake. Two sleek motor craft, exhausts chattering, turn sharply and head into the wind, a striking contrast to the two nearby boats, now racing away in a foaming hurry. Interested spectators are watching four units of the district's newest marine organization, the Dalhousie Yacht Club, take to the open water for sail-stirring runs, filling a sun-lit afternoon to the full with something that poor landlubbers cannot begin to grasp.

Organized within the past year, the Dalhousie Yacht Club is more than a vigorous infant. Five sloops, two yawls, a cutter and four motor-driven craft make up the enrolment of the club, which has set up its headquarters on the Michigan side at Port Dalhousie, and is rapidly forging ahead. Some thirty members sail the twelve craft, headed by Commodore Frank Cornelius, well-known St. Catharines business man, whose smart little yawl, the "Drake", is a familiar sight along the lakefront. Other officers of the club are Bev Renshaw, secretary-treasurer, and Harry Gutteridge, Jules Dugas and Cyril Crysler, who make up an executive committee.

May to October

The fleet is dropped into the water in May, and it is October before the boats are hoisted back onto land out of reach of the thundering winter seas, and laid up until another season rolls around. Most of the boats have been sailing around Port Dalhousie for several years, but this is the first time that an organization has functioned. Evenings, holidays, week-ends and often during the day, the trim boats can be seen slipping out of the harbour for a few hours activity.

Frequently some boat weighs anchor for a lengthy journey such as the one which Commodore Cornelius and Corry Baer completed this week, and which took several days. Bev Renshaw plans a two-weeks' cruise, shortly which will take in more than three hundred miles of Lake Ontario.

Boats at present sailing under the red and white burgee include sloops belonging to John Smith, Bev Renshaw, Harry Gutteridge, Lloyd Wallace and Walter Bell, yawls owned by Corry Baer and Frank Cornelius, a cutter, which is the property of A. Davidson of Welland, and motor boats belonging to Fraser Klager, Jack Gibson, Henry Crysler and Jim Campbell.

There's a Difference To the uninitiated a sailboat is a sailboat, but it isn't so. For instance, a typical Dalhousie Club yawl is just over twenty feet long, with a mainmast of about 28 feet, and a mizzen mast of 15 feet, carrying three sails, jib, main and mizzen, tiller steered. It carries an auxiliary gas engine. There is possibly a ton of lead in the keel, which goes four feet or more under the surface of the water.

On the other hand, a sloop, such as that of Skipper Renshaw, is about 35 feet in length and has a mast which towers 35 feet into the air. The boat carries a keel weighing in the neighbourhood of two or three tons, and drawing six feet of water.

Big things are planned by the energetic membership. Already a ten ton derrick has been erected to handle the boats at launching time and when the season is over. A clubhouse is under consideration. The Dalhousie Yacht Club is on its way. Formed to band these clever sailors together through common interest in a great and a clean sport, it is more than making good. Much Lake Ontario water is destined to swirl behind D.Y.C. rudders in the next few years.

House Chair Report . . .

by Brian Fulton

house@dalhousieyachtclub.com

This month we had failure of our main entry doors to the clubhouse, on the day I was leaving for Mexico.

Fortunately Jason Matsugu stepped in and oversaw the project. We were forced to ask a few companies to give us bids on replacing them. We chose Niagara Glass because they appeared to be the most thorough and the most competent company to install new doors. Their top guy, Mike, did an excellent job of rehanging the existing doors so that we did not have to buy new ones, for now.

This will go a long way towards keeping out the winter temperatures and making the building more secure.

On your next visit to the clubhouse you should see doors that open and close much more easily and are airtight once they are closed.

DYC Cruising . . .

by Sandra Chave

cruising@dalhousieyachtclub.com

Dalhousie Yacht Club's weekend cruising program is a fantastic way to meet your fellow members and get out on the water to visit reciprocal yacht clubs! Our cruises take place on various weekends throughout the sailing season. Reciprocity with other yacht clubs means that DYC welcomes guests from other club and in exchange, our members enjoy the services and hospitality of a large network of clubs around the lakes.

DYC's Club Cruises are scheduled by member-volunteers who organize a flotilla of DYC boats to journey to other yacht clubs for sailing, fun and frolic. For those new to boating or cruising, this is a great way to gain cruising experience by taking advantage of safety in numbers, while you get your sea legs! Along with the enjoyment of travelling by boat between clubs, a typical cruise schedule might include a group BBQ, dinner at a local restaurant, group potluck, patio dancing.

DYC is hoping for more members to join in on the weekends. Yes, we will be playing Left Right Center (LRC), so remember to bring your loonies. Three loonies needed per game.

REGISTRATION - Both sail and power boats are invited to join. Please check your calendars and carefully consider the cruises you sign up for, as this reduces the last - minute work involved in cancellations, multiple slip assignment changes, substitutions and many emails by dock masters and cruise directors at both DYC and our destination clubs.

2024 Cruising Season Destinations

Cruise Dates	Location	Cruise Captains
Friday June 21 – Sunday June 23	Island Yacht Club	TBD
Saturday June 29 – Monday July 1	Boulevard Club	Sandra Chave & Tri Pham
Friday July 19 – Sunday July 21	National Yacht Club	TBD
Saturday August 3 to Monday August 5	Etobicoke Yacht Club	Sandra Chave & Tri Pham
Friday August 16 to Sunday August 19	Tuscarora Yacht Club Wilson NY	Sandra Chave & Tri Pham
Saturday Sept 7 to Sunday Sept 8	Smuggler's Cove Boat Club	Sandra Chave & Tri Pham

What will we do when we go to the clubs?

Island Yacht Club June 21 - June 23

Island Yacht Club calls Blockhouse Bay its home. It's often called the most beautiful cove on the Toronto Islands. It rewards visitors with unprecedented views and sunsets. Board the private shuttle at Queens Quay and arrive 10 minutes later on Muggs Island.

Reciprocal Visitors to The Island Yacht Club can utilize the following amenities:
Dining Facilities, BBQs, Outdoor Pool, Pickleball Courts, and Tender to the City

The Boulevard Club June 29 – July 1

A vibrant, lakeside community carved out of the peaceful shores of Lake Ontario. As the only lakefront, multi-sport recreation and social club in Downtown/West Toronto, the Boulevard Club delivers an unmatched member experience that's rich in history and tradition, yet focused on the future. From spectacular views and year-round activities to family-friendly services and an easy-access marina, it simply does not get more relaxed on the waterfront.

Reciprocal Visitors to The Boulevard Club can utilize the following amenities:
All our Dining Facilities – Patio reservations are first come first serve, outdoor pool, paddle crafts (canoes, kayaks & SUP) – reserve time slots with the Dock Staff, shower, washrooms and laundry facilities in the Boathouse.

National Yacht Club July 19 – July 21

If you have not been to the National Yacht Club, you should mark your calendars. The club has done substantial work on their docks.

Club BBQ on Saturday July 20th and campfire with smores by the lake.

DO Not forget to try the clubhouse restaurant for breakfast, a treat that should not be missed. Start your engines. The Indy is on and the Blue Jays are at home this weekend playing the Detroit Tigers. Games are on July 20 and July 21.

Etobicoke Yacht Club Aug 3 – August 5

Nestled in the protected waters of Humber Bay with easy access to the sailing playground of western Lake Ontario, our club is close proximity to the city and Toronto Islands. This weekend will not only be Caribana, but DYC Christmas in August party.

The cruising committee will be serving Roasted Turkey and fresh cranberry sauce, as the club has a wonderful self-kitchen. We will be playing Christmas theme games. I hope you remember where your Santa hat is.

Tuscarora Yacht Club (US) August 16 – August 19

Explore the state park and town of Wilson. The Cruise Captains will be organizing a walk to town. Visit the Wilson Brew Co. for great coffee and freshly baked bagels with their own special spreads, a few unique waterfront bars with live music, purchase cheaper beer at the local grocery store and finish the day with a stop at Brownie's Ice Cream stand.

On Saturday, the cruising committee will be hosting an evening event including a chili dinner with all the fixings, as the clubhouse has a wonderful self-help kitchen. There are incredible BBQ areas there and a huge fire pit as well.

Please remember all boats over 30 feet must have their decal for entry to the United States. Go to the D-Tops site from the United States Customs Border Protection site. Each skipper is responsible for their crew and required documentation, for entry into the United States.

Smuggler's Cove September 7 – September 8

The Smuggler's Cove Boat Club (SCBC) is a unique floating club tucked in amongst the picturesque natural beauty of the Niagara Parkway, where it intersects with East-West Line, coming from Highway #55. There are a few wineries within walking distance to check out, once you hike up the hill.

On Saturday Night, we will be having the Cruising Wrap Up Party and dinner.

Looking forward to seeing everyone on the water. Sandra - CHI CHI Maru
